

CROSS-CULTURAL EVANGELISM TOOL KIT INTERACTIVE STUDY GUIDE FOR REACHING BUDDHISTS

This worksheet is available to you individually or in a group setting. Jot down answers to questions and generate group activities as the Holy Spirit directs you.

Chapter 1

Has God put a burden in your heart to serve the people in Buddhist nations? Share your story.

Name a few strongholds that keep people within the Buddhist culture in continual darkness.

Chapter 2

Describe the characteristics you might find in a “person of peace.”

Can you think of a few ways that will help you get to know Buddhist families/individuals better?

Chapter 3

What are some questions you might ask a Buddhist as you are getting to know him/her? (Role play with other group members to practice these questions.)

Chapter 4

Knowing the differences in the world's vast array of cultures is vital in connecting with other people. Name a few common “traditions” from your culture. Are they bridges or walls? Talk about ways you can turn walls into bridges.

Chapter 5

How would you approach members of a Buddhist community who have never heard the Gospel?

(Continue study guide on back)

Chapter 6

Bless the person next to you using the methods Ben describes.

Chapter 7

What are some ways you can make baptism a more personal and Spiritual experience for a new believer who grew up in a Buddhist environment?

Chapter 8

Compare your group's worldviews and ask yourself, "Am I open to sharing the Gospel in a way that is different than how I was brought up?"

Chapter 9

How could you use aspects of Thai Songran Water Festival (Thai New Year), to explain baptism to a new believer?

Chapter 10

Describe the significance in contextual terminology in this chapter:

Spirit of the Universe vs. God –

Possession vs. filled (with the Spirit) –

Chapter 11

Using a method shown in the DVD or one of your own, explain the truth of the Gospel using the Buddhist Chedi. (Partner up for this or take turns telling the whole group.)

Chapter 12

Can you recreate the story of the "Water Bridge?"

Can you think of a new way of demonstrating the Gospel story using visual aids? E-mail ideas to equip2goteam@gmail.com.

Chapter 13

How did you first come to know Jesus? Share your stories.

Create International's film "When the Storm Comes" is a powerful feature-length movie that uses Biblical principles to help Thai people overcome fear, addiction, and spiritual strongholds. This film and many other resources are available to download free at www.indigitube.tv Practice using videos and animation you download from our Web site before going on outreach.